| Kristen (President/CEO): We have an incredible team here at GreenPath. Our team is courageous, they are creative, and they're really empathetic. They really care about what we do and they care about the people we serve. | Kristen sitting in office giving an interview. Scenes of employees talking, laughing, working. |
| Kristen (President/CEO): Well, we have a bold vision and that is to remix the American dream so it works for everyone. So what that means for us is first of all, we have to listen to each person who contacts GreenPath to understand what's important to them because the remix of the American dream just means that it's what's important to each individual, it's not for us to decide what somebody's dream should be and then we want to make sure that we can be that guide to people to be able to achieve whatever their dreams are. So, we really partner with each person who contacts us to be there for them and help them achieve their dreams. | GreenPath employees collaborating on projects. Kristen sitting in office giving an interview. Illuminated letters sign spells out "HOPE". Whiteboard presentations displayed. |
